Reverend Nikki Pearson's mission and vision is to preach, teach and demonstrate God's love, provoke hope, and ignite faith in His Word that empowers and propels people into living a breakthrough life. Her sermons and workshops are Scripture based and are often laced with her personal testimonies of God's amazing grace, healing power, mercy, love, and unmerited favor.

Reverend Nikki (as she likes to be called) serves as an Associate Pastor at the First Baptist Church of Glenarden (FBCG) where she has been a member over 17+ years. She serves as a group facilitator for FBCG's Women's Focus Studies workshops, a FBCG Bible Institute Instructor, and she periodically hosts monthly Women in Ministry Workshops in her home. Reverend Nikki frequently serves as keynote speaker and preacher, and workshop facilitator at women's conferences and retreats. She preaches, teaches and sings at churches, local women's detention centers, shelters, and adult drug and alcohol rehabilitation/treatment centers throughout the DMV, and the nation.
