

Greater New Hope Baptist Church Officers' History

New Hope Baptist Mission was established on November 23, 1933, by Rev. Chester L. Smallwood. Rev. Smallwood was appointed Pastor and eighteen officers were elected. Rev. Smallwood served as the pastor from 1933 until 1937, followed by Rev. Charles H. Hamilton.

In 1938 Rev. Charles H. Hamilton became the pastor of New Hope Baptist Mission. In 1953 under Rev. Hamilton's pastorship, the church was renamed Greater New Hope Baptist Church. Because of Rev. Hamilton's vision and insight, the church moved from 5th Street, NW, downtown to its present location 816 8th Street, NW, Washington, DC. Rev. Charles H. Hamilton served as the pastor from 1938 until 1982.

In 1985 Pastor Melvin G. Brown became the Pastor of Greater New Hope Baptist Church. Thanks be to God, he is still our present shepherd, and was consecrated to Bishop Melvin G. Brown in April 2009.

Each Pastor spiritually led and guided the church congregation with Christian love and dedication.

The History of the Church Board of Deacons is as follows:

The Board of Deacons

Under Rev. Smallwood's tenure he appointed Brother Yancey Dean Chairman of the Deacon Board. Appointed to serve with him were: Jefferson Yeldell, L.V. Smallwood, George Tyler, Jessie Drumming, James Simpkins, George Williams and James Thompson. These Servant-leaders were faithful and represented fully as spiritual leaders of the church. They worked with and assisted faithfully and diligently with the Pastor.

Church Officer's Guide

We will follow our Leader, Christ Jesus, the Lord,
We'll join in his praises with gracious accord;
We'll all look to Heaven as a right blessed home,
We'll all do our best whilst on earth we shall roam;
Our Christian faith means we'll love each day
And God bless us all, as we continue to pray.
